

BADRINATH!

A tribute to the Guru Parampara

PGP Hall, Sri Srinivas Perumal Temple, April 3rd, 7-8.30pm

Serene and contemplative, the sublime backdrop of Badrinath has been the source of inspiration for holy sages and masters through the ages. Come, imbibe the sacred journey of the Masters— Veda Vyas, Sri Adi Shankaracharya, Sri Tapovan Maharaj through the expressive world of dance. Using the sages' key works, this original production traces the complexities of Dharma as seen in the Mahabharata, through the entanglements of Maya, described in Maya Pančakam, and the final way out for Man as declared in the Bhagavad Gita. This is after all the journey of all seekers, in particular, one young seeker who heard his calling in Badrinath...

This production will be premiered in the auspicious presence of Pujya Guruji SWAMI TEJOMAYANANDA, Head of Chinmaya Mission Worldwide and Padma Bhushan awardee
in this special Birth Centenary of Pujya Gurudev SWAMI CHINMAYANANDA.

Presented by

BADRINATH!

A tribute to the Guru Parampara

Serene, contemplative, sublime, the backdrop of Badrinath has been the source of inspiration for holy sages through the ages. Come, imbibe the sacred journey of the Masters—Swami Veda Vyas, Sri Adi Shankaracharya, Sri Tapovan Maharaj and Pujya Gurudev Swami Chinmayananda through the expressive world of dance. Using the sages' key works as a guide, this original production traces the concepts of Dharma and Maya through the ultimate guide to humankind, the Mahabharata.

This production will be premiered in the auspicious presence of Pujya Guruji Swami Tejomayananda, Head of Chinmaya Mission Worldwide and Padma Bhushan awardee in this special Birth Centenary of Swami Chinmayananda.

Chinmaya Mission devotees Gayatri Sriram and Hari Om Jani lead the production that features dancers from Shruti Laya Dance (Singapore) and Mudrika Foundation (Bengaluru).
