

Pilgrimage

*Twenty days,
to find our way.
Our inner journey has begun.
Numerous faces,
but the masks we wore, are shunned.
Disparate lamps,
but the flame we held was One.
Learning to live, mindfully.
Serving with gratitude.
Practicing patience and empathy.
The call for introspection,
of silence and reflection;
the sojourn of transformation;
from seeing truth to being Truth.
Climbing the mountains of superficiality;
breathlessly, to delve deeply.
Discovering the brilliance of inner beauty,
through the tears of humility.
Seeking happiness, independently.
Striving to traverse the finite*

*into the realm of infinity,
with intense longing for eternity.
Inspiring our minds, boundlessly.*

*Our pilgrimage-
a journey of self discovery.*

*Twenty days,
to evolve from our yesterdays;
to watch universe's interplay.*

*Twenty days
to light our way.*

Are the scars of our souls erased ?

*The belief in our Self,
can we raise ?*

All experiences-enriching.

The wisdom-illuminating.

*Our spirits- humbled and awed
by the essence of this thought-*

'I tried God, I felt God.

I saw God.

Now, I became God.'
